BIOGRAPHY

Henriette Fuchs is a Senior Partner at Pearl Cohen's Tel Aviv office and Chair of the International Tax Group. She has a strong existing practice, based on over 20 years of experience, providing comprehensive tax guidance to international companies with commercial activities in Israel, and Israeli companies with international activities, including complex matters relating to direct and indirect taxation.

Henriette's unique expertise regarding cross-border transactions, covers all tax aspects relevant for incoming international investment, from IP and technology related tax structuring to large infrastructure projects, as well as complex outbound investment and financing structures.

Further, Henriette is active in the framework of the tax committee of the Business and Industry Advisory Committee (BIAC) reporting to the Israel Manufacturers Association in relation to OECD and its advancing plans in the field of international tax planning.

Henriette and the International tax group, provide regular updates regarding tax law and developments in Israel, to the International Bureau for Fiscal Documentation and Tax Analysts.
